Monday, August 31. 1724.

London, August 31.

On Saturday arrived a Mail from Holland, and Yesterday one from France.

Moscow, August 8.

WE have received Advice from Tobolskoi in Siberia, that the Caravan appointed for China, set out from thence the 15th of last Month. It consists of 260 Persons, among whom there are some Dutch and English Merchants; two Russian Traders carry with them Credential Letters to the Emperour of China, and full Power to conclude a new Treaty of Commerce. They write from Astracan, that a Transport of 60 Vessels, laden with Ammunition and Provisions, were gone from thence for Derbent, under Convoy of four Frigates.

Petersbourg, Aug. 12. The Court has received an Express dispatched from Constantinople by our Resident, with the News of the Conclusion of the Treaty which has been negotiating since last Year between the Porte and our Emperour. We expect every Moment another Express with the Original Treaty. There is now in the Press an Authentick Account of the Ceremonies observed at the Coronation of our Emperour at Moscow, which will be published in a few Days; the Accounts that have been already sent to foreign Countries being very imperfect. On the 30th of July a Man of War, of the third Rate, named the Archangel Michael, carrying 54 Guns, was launched in presence of the whole Court, as was likewise the 7th Instant, the Man of War called the Derbent, of 66 Guns, and to Day a Frigate, called the Greyhound, was also launched. Such Persons as are willing to take the Convenience of the Packet Boats established between Petersbourg and Lubek, for the Benefit of Passengers, are not obliged to take Passports from M. Bottiger, his Imperial Majesty's Resident at Hambourg, as has been published without any Ground in foreign Countries.

Stockholm, Aug. 5. O. S. The King of Sweden returned the 18th past from Ekolfund to Carlberg, his Majesty having been disappointed of his Diversion of Hunting by the rainy Weather, which has continued without almost any Intermission for near two Months past. On the 31st the Court removed from Carlberg to the Palace of Ulricksdal, where on Monday the Birth Day of the Landgrave of Hesse, his Swedish Majesty's Father, was celebrated, on which Occasion the Queen gave a Ball, and there was a numerous Appearance of Persons of Distinction of both Sexes. Last Night the Court returned to Carlberg. Yesterday Count Meyersfeldt and his Lady and Family set out from hence for Schonen, in order to pass from thence to his Government of Pomerania.

Stockholm, Aug. 20. The King has published an Edict, whereby he promises to all those that are qualified for Traffick or Manufactures, and will come to settle in the Kingdom, that they shall not only have the free Exercise of their Religion, but also all the Privileges that the Subjects of other Kingdoms enjoy here, which has caused an unspeakable Joy amongst our Merchants, who do not doubt but this will prove in the End, an effectual Means to establish the Trade of this Kingdom.

Dantzick, Aug. 23. According to Letters from Warsaw, Nothing certain can be known about the good and bad Success of the Dyet of the Kingdom. Those from Mitau and Riga bring Advice, that the different Bodies of Troops that were quartered thereabout, are drawn together in such Manner, as that in 24 Hours they may form a Camp about Dunamonde, to be reviewed by the Czar; that a Regiment of 3000 Men was gone into Riga, where the Burghers were making great Preparations to receive his Czarist Majesty, and that that Monarch was to make some Stay in that City. We hear from Petersbourg, that there is an Express arrived from Astracan, with Advice, that a considerable Body of Troops commanded by Miriwey, advanced as far as to the Gates of Andreoff, with Design to surprize that Fortress in the Night Time; but having been discovered by the Calmuck Tartars that were upon Duty, they were obliged to retire, taking along with them what Cattle they met with about the City.

Warsaw, Aug. 23. The Field Marshal Count Fleming is arrived here from Dresden, and assisted at a Council which was held in his Majesty's Presence. The Count de Warisdoiff will return to Saxony about the Beginning of next Month. The Baron de Racknitz has taken Possession of the Post of Great Master of the Horse to the King as Elector of Saxony. The Primate of the Kingdom has sent Circular Letters to the Deputies of the Nobility in the Provincial Dyets, exhorting them, among other things, to provide Payment of the Arrears due to the Troops of the Crown, to fill up the Regiments, as the neighbouring Powers do, to redeem the Territory of Elbing, and to maintain and support the Roman Catholick Religion in the other Towns of the Polish Prussia. The Dyet of this Capital, and District belonging thereto, was opened last Night, where Messieurs Losky and Chmarnovsky were chosen to be Deputies to the next General Dyet: They are both very able Men, and well affected to the Government.

Madrid, Aug. 25. King Philip having erected the Church at St. Ildefonso into an Abbey, has appointed Don Domingo Guerra (a Secular Priest, and Confessor to King Philip's Queen) to be the Abbot; allowing him a considerable Revenue out of the Lands thereabout, with the same Power and Authority that a Bishop has in his Diocese, which Settlement has been approved by the Pope. Some Days ago Sig. Valeriani, an Italian Eunuch at this Court, received Orders to depart his Catholick Majesty's Dominions.

Fontainebleau, Sept. 1. The 23d past in the Evening, the King accompanied by the Duke of Orleans and the Count de Clermont arrived here, as did the Infanta Queen the next Day. The 25th being the Festival of St. Lewis, whose Name the King bears, his Majesty received the Compliments of the Princes and Princesses and Lords of the Court.

Hague,

Hague, Sept. 1. The States of Holland separated on Saturday last, leaving the Affair of the Augmentation of the Forces of this Republick undetermined. They will meet again the 15th Instant. The Directors of the East India Company are here, being sent for to confer with certain Deputies of the States General on Matters relating to the Ostend Company. M. Buys their High Mightinesses Minister at Copenhagen, gives great Hopes by his last Dispatches, that the Differences with the King of Denmark will soon be adjusted. The Duke of Holstein-Beck, Governour of Ypres, being in a very bad State of Health, Count Maurice of Nassau is come hither from Gelderland, to solicit the States to confer that Government upon him, in Case of the Decease of the said present Governour. The Elector of Cologne is endeavouring by his Minister here, to engage the States to contribute towards the Charge of the new Canal which he is making from Munster to Swoll, representing that it will be of greater Advantage to their Subjects than to his own.

Paris, Sept. 6. On the 29th past, the King went to hunt the wild Boar, and supped with the Duke of Bourbon; Madame the Dutchess, Mesdemoiselles de Charolois and Clermont, the Viscountess Taverannes, the Marchioness de la Vrilliere, and the Countess of Maurepas, together with Part of the Lords that attended his Majesty a Hunting, had the Honour to sup with him, there being 24 Covers laid. The next Day the King went out a Hunting again, when two Harts were hunted down. Several of the King's Guards lost themselves in the Forest, and could not find their Way out till the next Morning. His Majesty supped that Evening in the Dining-Hall with the Dutchess of Bourbon, Mesdemoiselles de Charolois and Clermont, the Countess of Toulouse, the Dutchess of Louvigny, Madam Taverannes and Villeneuve, Maid of Honour to Madame de Clermont, the Duke of Orleans, Count de Clermont, and several other Lords. The Table is always for 24 Persons, and the King names the Night before the Lords and Ladies that are to sup with him the following Day. His Majesty stays three Hours at Table. On the 1st Instant, M. Moisy, an Artificer in Fireworks, who lived near the Barrier of Seve, being busy at 7 a-Clock in the Morning about his Fireworks, set Fire, through Carelessness to his Magazine of Powder, which blew up the whole House: He, together with his Wife, his Niece, two Workmen, and another Person, all perished by this Accident; their Limbs were all found scattered here and there; and the Fire having reached several Thatched Houses in the Neighbourhood, it was put out with much Difficulty, by reason of the high Wind and the scarcity of Water, notwithstanding all the Care of the Lieutenant General of Police, who repaired thither in Person. On the 31st past the Parliament determined an Incident started in the Cause of Mademoiselle de Choiseuil, who was admitted to have the Register of the late M. le Duc, Man-midwife, produced in Court, which is looked upon as a Decision of that Cause in her Favour. Prince d'Isenghens is to set out next Week for Picardy, to take Possession of the Government of that Province.

Windser, August 28.

Yesterday His Majesty went out a Shooting in the Forest, where he diverted himself from Eight a-Clock in the Morning till almost Five in the Afternoon.
